Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, America's greatest strength has always been an educated citizenry; and,

WHEREAS, An educated citizenry is fundamental to the development of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The public schools of this state are dedicated to the future of the children; and,

WHEREAS, The teachers, administrators, parents and residents of each community are committed to the benefit of their youth; and,

WHEREAS, The people of this state have made significant contributions to the preservation of learning; and,

WHEREAS, The citizens of South Dakota have been the recipients of the bounties of free public education:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 15 through 21, 1987, as in South Dakota for the purpose of providing public recognition and appreciation for the dedication and contributions of the classroom teacher, not only to this community as a whole, but to each of us as individual citizens.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
